MY BIRTHDAY PARTY

Dear diary,

Saturday, April 6th 2019

Today is a great day, because it is finally my birthday! I am turning 9 years old, I am not a little boy anymore.

My birthday party is in the afternoon, after school, and everybody is prepared and ready to have a fantastic time. The party starts at 5 p.m. and all my friends are coming to my house. Everyone in my family has a job to do.

My dad is in charge of the food: he is preparing vanilla cupcakes and cheese sandwiches, pineapple juice and fruit shakes to drink, and potato chips and sweet snacks, too. Oh! And he is also making an enormous strawberry cake with nine candles on it.

My mam is the best at games, so she is organizing different activities. I want to do the sack race first. I think I can win because I am very fast! There are also lots of balloons to have a water balloon fight. We are lucky it is hot and sunny today!

Eva, my older sister, is very good with make up and costumes. She is ready to paint our faces to be pirates, arrrr! She uses black paint to draw scars and she has a big box full of clothes and accessories: pirate hats, red vests, black pants, beards and swords...

My uncle Tom is coming, too. He is a great magician! He wears a black cape and a black top hat. Magicians use a special magic wand to make tricks. He knows how to pull out a rabbit from a hat, make things disappear and he can play amazing card tricks.

I hope we all have a good time and I get some nice presents, too!
