LEGENDARY CREATURES

The biggest monster in the sea

The Kraken is a legendary sea creature that is generally described as a giant octopus or squid.

Its body is so big that it looks like an island. The monster has got many long powerful arms called tentacles ready to grasp and destroy.

It has got two enormous eyes and a big strong mouth with sharp teeth.

It is very lazy and spends most of the time sleeping on the ocean floor. When the Kraken is hungry, it comes up from the bottom of the sea to hunt. It is a carnivore, but it only feeds on fish.

It can be very dangerous too. The Kraken does not like anybody to wake it up when it is sleeping, so it sometimes attacks big ships and takes them to the bottom of the sea.

The fire bird

The Phoenix is a mythical bird and is very famous for its beauty, its immortality and its beautiful voice .

It looks like an eagle, with brilliant red and gold feathers. It has got black eyes and a golden beak. It has also got a golden tail with feathers that are very hot to the touch.

The Phoenix is called the Fire Bird and it has supernatural powers. The story goes that this bird lives for one hundred years before it is ready to die. Then, it dies and is born again from fire. It magically comes back to life.

Visiting The Minotaur

Lola and Marcus are visiting the Museum with Lola's grandma. Lola's grandma is a Professor of History at the University. They are learning a lot about Greek culture.

Grandma – Now we are going to enter the Room of Myths. You are going to love this room! It is full of the most fantastic creatures... mythological creatures, I must say!

Marcus – Mythological creatures? Are they monsters? Are they real?

Lola – Nooooo! They are not real, Marcus! They are fantastic creatures from ancient Greek legends. My grandma knows many of these stories. My favourite is the Minotaur... Let's go and see!

They all go to the end of the room, where there is a sculpture of...of what? Is it an animal? Or a person?

Lola – See, Marcus? This is the Minotaur. It is a fantastic creature, half animal and half human. It has got a bull's head with big, pointy horns on top. And it has got a man's body, with very strong muscles.

Grandma – You are right, Lola. The Minotaur is King Minos's pet...

Marcus – A pet? Really? But it is enormous! How can this animal live in a real house?

Grandma – Yes, Marcus, it is very tall, about 3 metres. It lives in a labyrinth in King Minos's island. The Minotaur is not a very nice pet. It eats big animals, but it also loves eating humans. The people are really scared and King Minos doesn't know what to do.

Lola – One day, Theseus, a very brave boy, decides to enter the labyrinth and kill the Minotaur. But the problem is how to get out of the labyrinth. Ariadne, a very intelligent girl, helps Theseus to escape.

Grandma – Yes. But that is another story... Maybe I can tell you that story the next time we visit the museum.
