Tapescript:

Hello, my name is Johnny.

I'm from Birmingham in England. It's a big city and not very beautiful, but I like it. I live in a small house with my mum and my brother Alistair. Alistair is 7 and I'm 9 years old.

My Mum is a nurse at the local hospital, she loves looking after people and she's really good at looking after me when I'm ill too! My Dad isn't working at the moment, but he does lots of jobs around the house and he usually makes our dinner. He's a brilliant cook and I love helping him, especially when we do pizzas together!

Our granny lives next door and I sometimes sleep over at her house when my Mum and Dad go out. We have fish and chips and later we play cards until it's time for bed.

Alistair likes football, he plays after school and he watches football on TV at the weekend. I don't like football, I like animals we've got a black cat and a parrot. The parrot is white with big wings. He can talk. In the morning, it says "Hello Johnny", "Hello Johnny", I love our parrot.

My cat is older than me, she's ten years old and she loves fish. Her name is Kitty. She doesn't speak to me but she always comes up to me when I get home from school and walks between my legs, it's her way of saying "Hello"!
